Forecast For Strathclyde
Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 1600 on Wednesday 21 Apr 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Widespread overnight frost. Dry with long sunny spells Thursday.

This Evening and Tonight:
Dry and clear for much of the evening and overnight. With light winds, a widespread frost is expected to develop, and perhaps a few mist or fog patches. Minimum temperature -2 deg C (28 deg F).

Thursday:
A bright and dry day with long spells of sunshine, although more in the way of cloud is expected in the afternoon. Feeling warm in the sunshine with light winds. Maximum temperature 14 deg C (57 deg F).

Outlook for Friday to Sunday:
Settled conditions largely continuing with light winds and plenty of sunshine, as overnight frosts become more isolated. Risk of a few afternoon showers, especially over the hills, through the weekend.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.